

SAVE is recruiting!

17 August 2015 || To: NUS Students

Here is your chance to lead environmental projects on campus with like-minded peers.

NUS SAVE 23rd Management Committee Recruitment

Passionate about making our Earth a better place to live in? Have a strong drive to create meaningful change on campus? Enjoy working in teams and forging deep long-lasting friendships?

NUS Students Against Violation of the Earth (SAVE) is recruiting members for our 23rd Management Committee. Whether you have any experience and specific skills to contribute, or are willing to learn on the job, don't worry, there's always a position that is the right fit for you!

Head over to our website to find out more about SAVE's various activities before deciding on what excites you!

For the list of positions available and a description of job scope and prerequisites for each role, please refer to the following link:

bit.ly/SAVE23MCInfo.

To interested applicants:

Do submit your application responses through our e-survey link: bit.ly/SAVE23MC by 23 August, 2359h. Applicants will be interviewed on a rolling basis from 17-28 August and are thus encouraged to apply early for consideration. Further information will be disseminated to applicants after the application has been received.

We welcome everyone regardless of your year and faculty to apply for position you are interested in.

Look out for us on Facebook and IVLE to learn more about our upcoming Welcome Tea (17 August) and Orientation Camp (22 August)!

For any enquiries, do contact us at nussavesg@gmail.com.