Ever wonder if you have the magic Midas touch in you to turn everything into gold? Ridge View Residential College (RVRC) is proud to present Project EcoArtsy, an upcycling workshop that teaches you how to creatively transform your trash into art.

Fees will be collected from you on 7th, 10th and 11th March 2016 from 6pm to 8pm at Yusof Ishak House (YIH) Starbucks.

The proceeds will be donated to Ground-Up Initiative (GUI), a non-profit organisation, to fund the expansion of Kampung Kampus that promotes connection among people through a sustainable lifestyle.

The poster features a background collage of images including a person working at a desk, a dreamcatcher, and a cardboard box. The text is arranged in a clear, bold layout. The title 'Eco Artsy' is in a large, black, cursive font. Below it, 'Go Greenative!' is in a green, bold font. The main text is in black, bold fonts, providing details about the workshop. The RVRC logo is in the bottom right corner.
