

Biodiversity Roadshow @ NUS || Happening tomorrow, 11am - 3pm

15 February 2017 || TO NUS Community

Drop by The Forum (below Central Library) tomorrow to check out our Biodiversity Roadshow! Get up close and personal with specimens from the Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum, and find out more about what various groups on campus are doing to promote biodiversity.

See you there!

Office of Environmental Sustainability

BIODIVERSITY
Roadshow

16 FEBRUARY 2017
11AM - 3PM

What to look out for?

CHECK OUT THE BOOTHS AND ORGANISATIONS THAT WILL BE THERE!

Bachelor of Environmental Studies (BES) Drongos
Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum
NUS Toddycats
Showcase of local biodiversity specimens

National Parks Board (NParks)
Volunteer recruitment for NParks Citizen Science programmes

NUS Co-op
Sale of biodiversity-related merchandise

NUS Students Against Violation of the Earth (SAVE)
Information about biodiversity found in NUS

Office of Environmental Sustainability
Information about the SustainABLE NUS campaign

Office of Facilities Management
Information about significant tree species in NUS and the campus greenery masterplan

St John's Island National Marine Laboratory
Tropical Marine Science Institute
Information on marine research, and outreach and education programmes on St. John's Island

Be there, learn & participate!

@THE FORUM
(BELOW CENTRAL LIBRARY)