

CDL Singapore Young Photographer Award 2018 || Open Call

23 February 2018 || TO NUS Students

To view the full email, click here.

The banner features a dark green background with white text and images. At the top left, the title 'CDL Singapore Young Photographer Award 2018' is written in a light green font, followed by the subtitle 'A National Photography Award on Sustainable Development' in white. A large white 'Y' shape is centered, with a photograph of a seagull in flight above it and a photograph of a modern building below it. To the left of the 'Y' is a vertical credit line. On the right, the text 'Open Call' is in light green, followed by the deadline 'Now until 30 April 2018 23:59 (SG Time)' in white. At the bottom, a white button contains the text 'SUBMIT PHOTOGRAPHS NOW' in dark green.

CDL Singapore Young
Photographer Award 2018
A National Photography Award
on Sustainable Development

L-R © Koh Chaik Hong © Jedidiah Lim Kang En

Open Call
Now until 30 April 2018
23:59 (SG Time)

SUBMIT PHOTOGRAPHS NOW

Initiated by City Developments Limited (CDL), and championed by the late Mr. Kwek Leng Joo, a philanthropist and an avid photographer, the Singapore Young Photographer Award is the only national award for Singapore photographers between 13 to 25 years old.

Presented by CDL and organised by DECK, the much-awaited national photography competition is back and revamped with a focus on the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, with attractive awards up for grabs! Whether you are an all-rounder, or have a flair for architecture, nature or story-telling, unleash your creativity and experience the endless possibilities photography has to offer!