

NEA Youth Environment Envoy Programme

2 June 2017 || TO NUS Students

Are you an aspiring leader committed, motivated and passionate about the environment? Apply for the National Environment Agency's (NEA) Youth Environment Envoy (YEE) Programme!

To sign up, complete the application form at <http://bit.ly/2qzq61T> by 5 June 2017.

2016 YEEs at a site visit to Tuas Incineration Plant (Photo: Gina Goh)

Induction Workshop

All successful applicants begin their YEE journey at the 32nd run of NEA's YEE Induction Workshop, where you will learn about Singapore's environmental scene from different speakers. Collaborate with like-minded individuals from the cohort, meet industry experts and go on an experiential trail!

Dates and times:

17 June – 9am to 5pm, Singapore Sustainability Academy, City Square Mall

18 June – 9am to 1pm, Singapore Sustainability Academy, City Square Mall

19 June – 9am to 1pm, Tuas Incineration Plant

The YEE 2017 – 2018 Calendar:

Jun 2017 Induction Workshop	Sep 2017 Systems Thinking Workshop	Jan 2018 Networking Session	Mar 2018 Skills Workshop	Apr 2018 Youth for the Environment Day	Ad-hoc Projects, events, workshops
-----------------------------------	--	-----------------------------------	-----------------------------	--	--

About the YEE Programme

Launched in 2005, the YEE programme aims to groom a network of youth to become leaders and change agents in moving their peers and the community towards environmental ownership and sustainability. It is especially for youth environmental leaders who are committed to sustainable development in their institutional and personal capacities. Participants receive training to strengthen their environmental knowledge, as well as their interpersonal and project management skills so as to enable them to take on proactive roles as leaders in meaningful projects.

Click on the thumbnails below to see how some YEEs have contributed to the environment!

Cheryl Lee

Elaine Sam
(NUS Students Against Violation of the Earth)

Goh Jia Ying

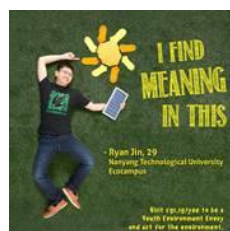

Ho Xiang Tian

Mervin Soon

Nor Lastrina Hamid

Ryan Jin

Tan Yi Han