

NUS SAVE's Lunchbox Rental Initiative @ The Deck Canteen—One more week to go!

26 October 2017 || TO NUS Community

Did you know that the paper takeaway boxes are not recyclable? These paper boxes have a layer of plastic that cannot be separated from the paper, which cannot be made into pulp again.

The Lunchbox Rental initiative, which is a two-week pilot trial, hopes to encourage everyone to choose reusable lunchboxes for their takeaways. One less disposable takeaway box used is one step closer to a more sustainable lifestyle, so please support us by signing up and encouraging your friends to do the same!

Simply register your NRIC/FIN through tinyurl.com/lunchboxrentalsignup

Scan your NRIC/FIN at the borrowing machine (immediate use after registering), and return the box in the returning machine without the need to wash it! Both the borrowing and returning machines are located at The Deck canteen (Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences).

Be rewarded with a discount of $2 off your next meal with every 5 takeaways you make using a lunchbox—just take a Project Box card and collect 5 stickers every time you take away in NUS!

Please support us by following us on Instagram @nussave—we will be posting more updates there! And lastly, we would like to thank all the green communities in NUS who have helped out in this initiative, and everyone else for supporting this project.
