

Global Youth Climate Video Competition || Apply before 31 Aug 2018

27 July 2018 || TO NUS Students

The UNFCC secretariat and UNDP-GEF Small Grants Programme invite aspiring reporters to take part in their video competition. To enter, submit videos of climate action taken by youth.

More information about this competition can be found here.

Global Youth Video Competition on Climate Change 2018

Are you 18-30 and taking part in activities to fight climate change?

Send a 3-minute video for a chance to be a youth reporter at the UN Climate Change Conference in Poland in December.

Round-trip travel to 24th session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 24) in Katowice, Poland, in December 2018

Assignment as a youth reporter, assisting the UN Climate Change team with videos, articles and social media posts

Check the requirements

A maximum of 3 minutes long

Aged between 18 and 30

Spoken or subtitled English

Enter from any country

Deadline 31 August 2018

One winner in each of our two categories

How to enter

Choose your category

Get your friends to help

Complete the entry form

Send completed video

Public voting decides winner

biomovies.tve.org

