

ASEAN Plus Three Youth Environment Forum 2018 || Sign up by 30 May!

18 May 2018 || TO NUS Students

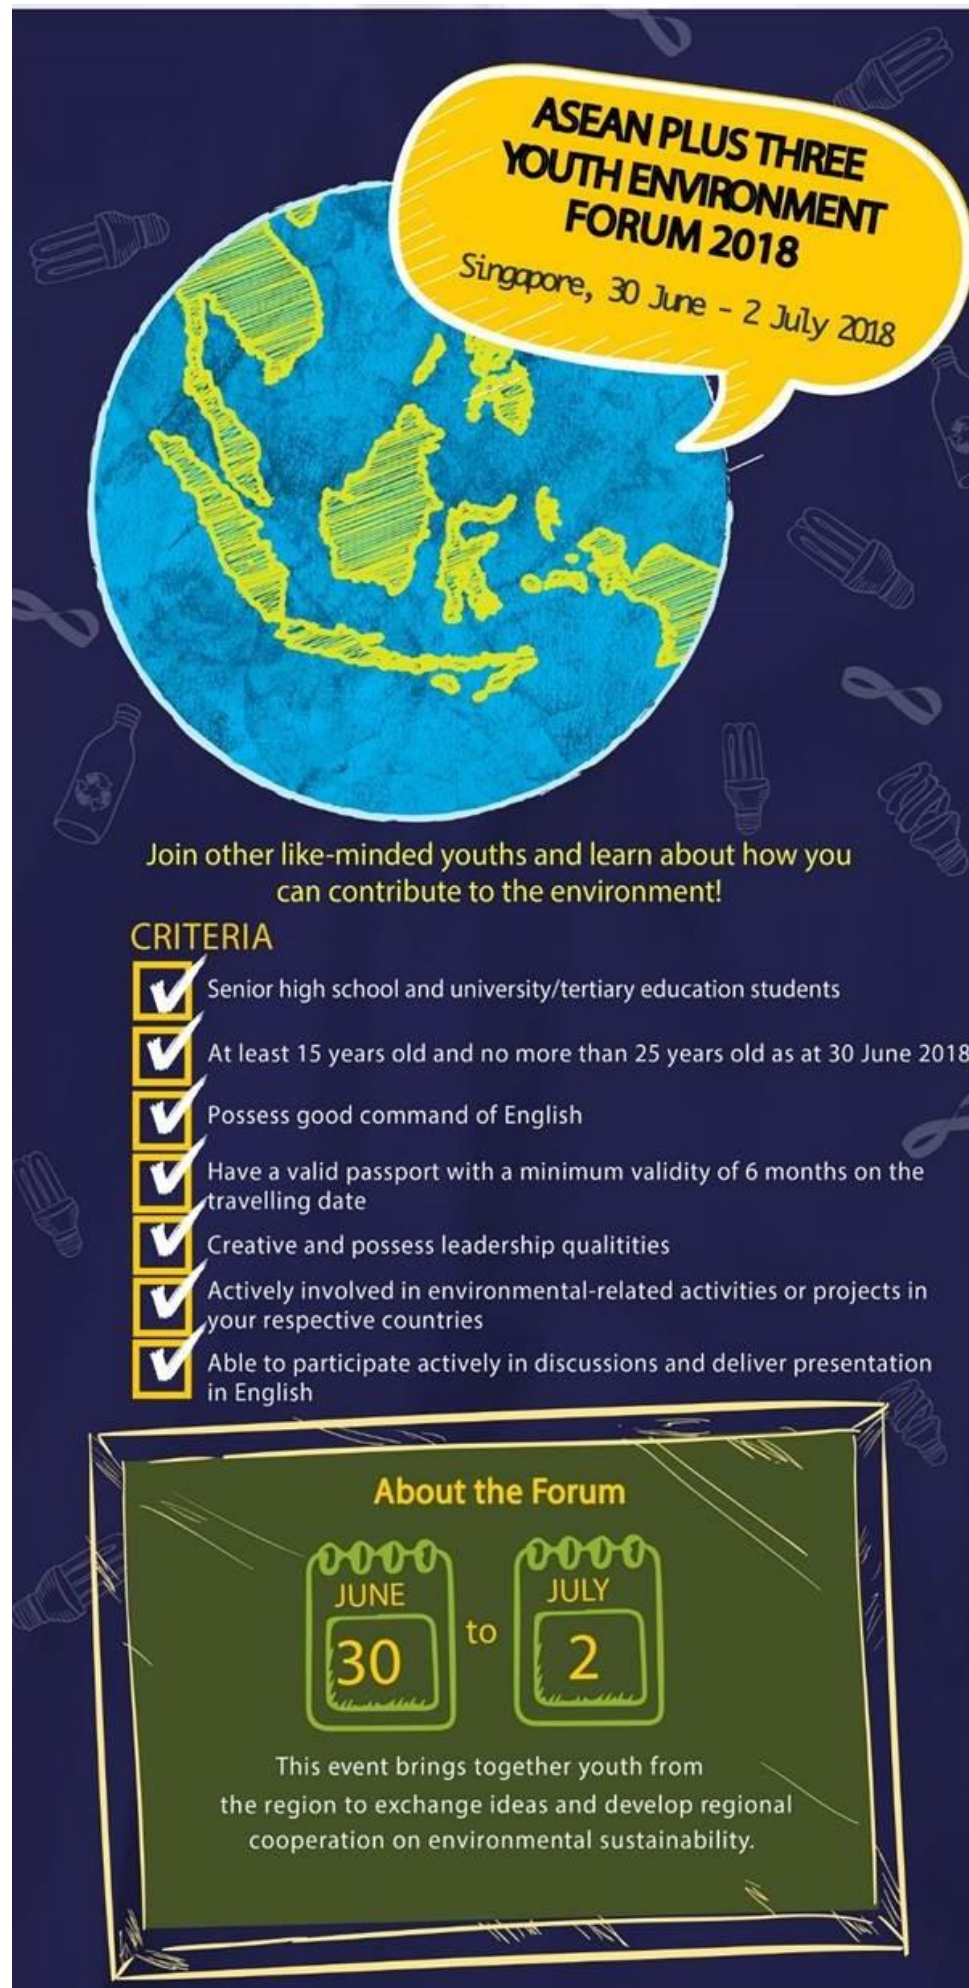

Have you signed up for the 5th ASEAN Plus Three Youth Environment Forum (AYEF) yet? If not, sign up now and join other like-minded youths to learn about how you can contribute to the environment!

The event will take place from 30 June to 2 July 2018.

The theme for AYEF 2018, "Imagine, Create, Change", acknowledges that youths play an important role in shaping ASEAN regional cooperation in the years ahead, and creating Environmentally Sustainable Cities (ESC) in ASEAN. You can look forward to plenary sessions and panel discussions, workshops, a field trip and ideation of proposed solutions to climate change issues.

The AYEF 2018 is a 3-day event in Singapore from 30 June to 2 July 2018 that aims to encourage youths to think of their ideal future environment, make a plan, and take action to make the changes required. The theme of AYEF 2018, “Imagine, Create, Change”, was chosen to encourage youths to play a role in shaping regional cooperation in the years ahead to create Environmentally Sustainable Cities (ESC).

Through the event, youth participants will gain a better understanding of three areas:

- 1) The effects of climate change;
- 2) Factors contributing to climate change;
- 3) How we can reduce the impact of climate change.

Criteria

Participants should:

- Be senior high school and university/tertiary education students
- Be at least 15 years old and no more than 25 years old at the point of AYEF 2018
- Possess good command of English
- Be creative and possess leadership qualities
- Be actively involved in environment-related activities or projects in their respective countries
- Be able to participate actively in discussions and deliver presentations in English
