Sharing Safety Training Program and SMS with Nagoya University

Professor Shizuaki Murata – Director, Environment and Safety Management Center, Nagoya University visited OSHE on February 15 2012 to study our Safety Management System and the Structured Safety Training System. Prof Murata shared safety implementation processes at Nagoya University with us. He greatly appreciated the quality of NUS safety management system and expressed interest in sending his safety staff to OSHE to be trained on our safety implementation procedures.