Review of OSHE’s Occupational Health Programme by

Professor David Koh Soo Quee

Assistant Vice Chancellor and Vice-President (Research and Innovation)
Chair Professor of Occupational Health and Medicine, PAPRSB Institute of Health Sciences, Universiti Brunei Darussalam

The Office of Safety, Health & Environment (OSHE), NUS, invited Professor David Koh to conduct a 2-day review of the NUS Occupational Health Programme from 11 June 2014 – 12 June 2014. The purpose of his visit was to tap on his expertise and seek his advisory in the development and implementation of our Occupational Health Programme. The policies that Professor David Koh reviewed included the Cytotoxic Drugs Risk Management and Medical Surveillance Programme, Medical Surveillance Programme for BSL2 and ABSL2, needle stick injuries, Animal Occupational Health Programme, pre-employment medical surveillance and checklist, and very briefly on Total Workplace Safety & Health (Total WSH). OSHE thanked Professor David Koh for his valuable advice in enhancing our Occupational Health Programme.
